

Tindley Sofa

Requires 10m fabric if railroded, 9m if joined.

The dimensions below refer to our standard size, but these can be altered according to client requirements. For more information, including fabric and finishes, pricing and lead times, please press the 'ENQUIRE' button or email bespoke@maxrollitt.com.
