

Elm & Sycamore Lambing Chair, circa 1780

A highly unusual lambing chair from the last quarter of the eighteenth century. Mainly made from elm, however, the arms and crest rail are made from sycamore. The drop-in seat is newly upholstered in an antique dyed linen.

Height: 121 cm Width: 72 cm Depth: 52 cm

REF: achair469

£4,850.00

YAVINGTON BARN, LOVINGTON LANE, AVINGTON, HAMPSHIRE, SO21 1DA
T. +44 (0)1962 791124 www.maxrollitt.com E.info@maxrollitt.com