

□

Portrait of Three Artists by John Raphael Smith, Mezzotint, 1778

A late-eighteenth century mezzotint by John Raphael Smith, after a painting by Jean-François Rigaud, depicting three artists and founding members of the Royal Academy: Agostino Carlini; Francesco Bartolozzi; and Giovanni Battista Cipriani. Presented in a flat oak frame with a gilded slip.

The same mezzotint is held in the Royal Collection and featured in the 2017 Exhibition, Portrait of the Artist, at The Queen's Gallery, Buckingham Palace.

Height: 70 cm Width: 79 cm

REF: A00912

£680.00

YAVINGTON BARN, LOVINGTON LANE, AVINGTON, HAMPSHIRE. SO21 1DA
T. +44 (0)1962 791124 www.maxrollitt.com E.info@maxrollitt.com