

Batavian Lamp

The Batavian Lamp is modelled on a treasured candlestick that dates back to circa 1720 – and which Max seldom lets leave his house. It's the original's red lacquer finish – worn, knocked and rubbed to shine over more than 300 years of ownership – that is most compelling, so developing a finish that does it justice has been a labour of love.

For more information, including pricing and lead times, please press the 'ENQUIRE' button or email bespoke@maxrollitt.com.

Height: 55 cm to top of bulb holder Diameter: 21 cm

REF: batal