

□

Late-19th Century Ash Ladder-Back Clissett Chair, by Philip Clissett

A late-nineteenth century ash Clissett chair, the ladder back with five graduated and shaped slats with turned finials over a rush seat. The front legs and back stiles turned and connected by two stretchers of rounded section.

This same model can be found at the Victoria and Albert Museum, [CIRC.511-1962],
<https://collections.vam.ac.uk/item/O61464/armchair-clissett-philip/>

Height: 115 Width: 60 Depth: 56

REF: A01435

£1,450.00

YAVINGTON BARN, LOVINGTON LANE, AVINGTON, HAMPSHIRE, SO21 1DA
T. +44 (0)1962 791124 www.maxrollitt.com E.info@maxrollitt.com